

Winter on Command Contest Rules

Employees of Simmons Multimedia, and Southland Honda and their immediate family members are prohibited from entering the contest.

You must be over the age of 18 and live within the traditional broadcast range of Maverick 105.1 and Big 106.7.

By entering this contest, you are consenting to Simmons Multimedia, to publicizing and/or broadcasting your name, character, likeness, or voice for the purpose of this promotion.

This contest is limited to one entry per person. If it is discovered that multiple entries are made by one individual, that individual will be removed from the contest.

In the event you are the grand prize winner and choose not to accept the prize, you forfeit any and all claims to the prize which can be awarded to a new winner from the registered contestants at the discretion of Simmons Multimedia. No alternate prize will be offered.

The prize of the remote start system comes complete with installation. If any special equipment or parts are needed to by-pass security features on the winners vehicle beyond the equipment that comes standard with the remote start system; the cost will be the responsibility of the contest winner.

The deadline to submit your entry is December 15th, 2020 at 11:59 pm.

The contest winner is responsible for making the installation appointment and keeping the appointment with Southland Honda.

With regards to the official temperature: Simmons Multimedia will use the reported temperature by Environment Canada for the community of Morden at 4:02 am CST (the precise time winter arrives on December 21st). The temperature we will use excludes wind chill. Your entry must specify if you are estimating the temperature in Celsius OR Fahrenheit. This data is available at www.weatheroffice.gc.ca

In the event multiple people select the correct or closest temperature, we will draw a name at random from all of the correct entries.

The decision of Simmons Multimedia in regards to the rules, and interpretations of these rules is final.

Simmons Multimedia collects personal data about entrants for the sole purpose of administering contests. Your information will be kept confidential and will not be sold or distributed to a third party for any reason.
